Emirates will fly from London Stansted from June 2018.

The new gateway will be the seventh UK airport that Emirates operates out of in the UK; other locations include London Heathrow, London Gatwick, Birmingham, Newcastle, Manchester and Glasgow.

Ken O'Toole, London Stansted's Chief Executive said:

"We're delighted that Emirates has recognised the strength of London Stansted's catchment and the opportunity that our available runway capacity gives them to continue growing in the South East of England over the next decade."

Saudi Arabian Airlines (SV)

We will now be asking for passenger contact details when booking Saudi Airlines (SV). The airline has announced that if passenger contact details are missing from the bookings they will fine travel agents. As a result we will not issue tickets for this airline without these details.

Introducing the latest members of Marine Travel.

Cameron is the youngest member of Marine Travel and joins us in the accounts team. He is a certified scuba diver and is settling into the team well.

Janet joins the team in our Manila office. She previously worked on cruise ships, then decided to stay on dry land in the Philippines. Before joining Marine travel she spent the last 14 years working for an Offshore Manpower agency.

Marlon, known as Gelo to his friends and family also recently joined the Marine Travel team in our Manila office.

Marlon has a bachelors degree in Tourism Management and has experience working both in the aviation and hospitality industry.

He loves travelling and has a passion for sustainable tourism.

Nicola introduced baby Grace Ella on the 16th December, both baby and mum are doing well and enjoyed their first Christmas together.

We sponsor the Marine FC and some of the Canterbury office braved the cold and went along to their match against Dover Athletic on 13th January to show their support.

Despite being one man down and a number of divisions below, Marine held their own and the score at the end was Marine 3 - Dover Athletic 4.
