

Marine Travel expansion continues

Marine Travel are pleased to welcome Steve Murray to the company.

Steve brings 40 years travel experience to our operation. Steve's responsibility will be to look at all aspects of the business, to improve further our bespoke service to our diverse marine market customers.

Steve will also be working towards maximising our commercial relationships with our key suppliers and therefore improving our best travel solutions and value to our customers.

As the UK's leading independent marine travel company our service levels are key to maintaining and growing our business and Steve will be looking at all areas to maximise performance for the benefit of our customers. This will include internal processes and the latest technology solutions.

Steve, who will be based at Marine Travel's Canterbury office said "I'm delighted to be joining Marine Travel. Our customer base is truly global and this offers fantastic opportunities to grow our business in this dynamic sector of the travel industry."

Dave Thompson, Managing Director of Marine Travel said "Steve is someone I've known for many years and we are delighted to have him join our team to help us develop and attain our goals for our business and our customers.
