THE MANIFEST

Our Core Value - Service

We are committed to going the extra mile to offer a totally bespoke and flexible service to meet our customers' needs. We always deliver our promises.

Delta Airlines begins trialing free WiFi

Delta has announced plans to offer limited free WiFi to all passengers on 55 of its short-, medium- and long-haul domestic flight segments over a two-week period. According to the airline, the test will allow passengers to browse the internet, check emails, shop online, use social media and send messages, but won't encompass more demanding services such as audio and video streaming.

Air France outlines plans to reduce short haul flights

Air France plans to reduce capacity on its short-haul routes, faced with increased competition from high-speed rail routes and low-cost airlines. The carrier said it would reduce short-haul capacity by 15% by the end of 2021.

Airline Routes Updates

- LOT Polish Airlines will commence flights between London City Airport and the Lithuanian capital Vilnius. The route will be operated by an Embraer 190 with economy, premium economy and business seats. Flights are twice-daily from Monday to Friday, with one flight per day on Saturday and Sunday due to London City's operating restrictions.
- Air Serbia will be operating twice-daily flights from London Heathrow to Belgrade from May 19th. Currently Air Serbia operates nine flights a week (daily plus two extra flights) on the route. This will increase the total to 16 flights a week.

The transfer of operations from Ataturk Airport to the new Istanbul Airport is now complete. After several delays the airport is now fully operational. Find out more <https://www.igairport.com/en>
