The Manifest - January 2022

The Marine Travel team would like to wish you all the very best as we head into the new year. We look forward to working together throughout 2022.

BA CityFlyer is launching four new routes across Europe. Operating from London City airport to Barcelona, Luxembourg, Milan and Thessaloniki. All flights will operate on BA CityFlyer's Embraer E190 aircraft.

Luxembourg and Milan will commence on the 27th March and both will operate every day of the week. On 18th June, Thessaloniki will launch, operating once a week on Saturday and on 19th June, Barcelona will operate six times a week, every day apart from Saturday.

Aer Lingus recently confirmed a start date of March 17th for its new franchise agreement with Emerald Airlines. The agreement will see a large number of routes from both Belfast and Dublin this summer.

Emerald Airlines will open a new base at Belfast City from where it will operate services to seven UK mainland destinations: Birmingham, Edinburgh, Exeter, Glasgow, Leeds and Manchester.

Etihad has expanded its green loyalty programme to corporate customers with the launch of 'Corporate Conscious Choices by Etihad'. The programme allows organisations to offset corporate travel, invest in Sustainable Aviation Fuels (SAF) and promote sustainable activities. The programme – called 'Corporate Conscious Choices', has been designed for organisations which are "committed to reducing emissions and operating sustainably, with rewards and incentives designed to proactively support pro-environmental, social and governance (ESG) initiatives and employee behaviour.
